

To Whom It May Concern:

As the Owner and Managing Director of NAI Panama, I am very happy to write this letter of recommendation for Daniel Zale. Daniel worked as an intern for NAI from June 18th to August 18th, 2010. During his time here, he proved himself to be a valuable asset to our company. Daniel's strong work ethic and positive attitude won over the respect of the entire office in a very short period of time.

A majority of Daniel's work was focused on researching ways to improve our operations. His strong analytical skills and leadership qualities made him a major contributor to the restructure of our customer relationship management systems. He also showed us ways to improve our business through strong ethics and corporate sustainability: two aspects that are at the core of the company.

Overall, Daniel is charismatic, hard-working, and very bright and his future employer will be lucky to have him.

Sincerely,

Frank Kardonski
